To the FCC:

I have learned of the potential sale of WMFE public television in Orlando, Florida. I have read the documents posted by WMFE, but I find them unpersuasive -- it is the potential of financial difficulty, rather than actual financial difficulty, that drives the sale.

WMFE provides more public programming to the people of Central Florida than any alternative currently available. There is simply no guarantee that any other station would pick up the slack.

The sale would thus deprive of people of Central Florida of a disinterested, public source of educational, artistic, and informational television.

This would be a tragedy.

I write to urge you in the strongest possible terms not to allow the sale.

yours,
